

Bihar Down The Ages

1.	Title Author Year Price (in Rs.) Pages Theme	Bihar Through The Ages R.R. Diwakar (ed.) Reprint 2001 340/- 891 This book is a monumental classic among the works on the history of Bihar. Great personalities such as Dr. Rajendra Prasad and Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru were the main inspirations behind the work. It is a compilation of contributions by different scholars on the various aspects of history and culture of Bihar from the ancient to the modern period. A separate section has been added by B.P. Sinha, supplementing new information about the cultural and political history of Bihar.
2.	Title Author Year Price (in Rs.) Pages Theme	Readings in the History of Rural South Bihar Bijoy Kumar Choudhary (Ed) 2007 160/- 264 This book is the outcome of a seminar sought to examine the diverse facets of the rural life of south Bihar, which consist the districts of Patna, Nalanda, Bhojpur, Gaya, Jehanabad, Arwal, Nawada and Aurangabad. The countryside of the region have witnessed several violent confrontations between different groups of peasantry. Various scholars and historians have expressed their valuable views on the agrarian structure of the region in different ages. The socio-economic and cultural facets of the region have been also analyzed in a perceptive manner.
3.	Title Author Year Price (in Rs.) Pages Theme	Patliputra Se Patna Tak Ka Itihas (in Hindi) Om Prakash Prasad 2010 175/- 264. The Indus civilization is the oldest example of town-planning in India. The second phase of township starts with Mahavir Jain and Gautam Buddha, when history was taking a new turn. A city called Patliputra was born at the southern end of the river Ganga after the death of Buddha. The present book depicts every aspect of the city – its history, society, custom, festivals, agriculture, economy, education and institutions in a very interesting and systematic way. The author has not left even a minor event, custom or reference regarding the city, untouched.